"Say, fellers, here's a go!"

Fools Met. (From the Dannille Breeze, 1 "It's but a step from the sublime to the itdiculous."

"How so?"
"Here's a man offers $1,000 for a bird dog.
That's sublime. Here's the owner, who won't take it. That's ridiculous." He Had Passed His Examination. Mr. Nervous-I want a little something sorning to make me sleep; sort of a soporine, as it were.

New Clerk—Ah, yes: Try a couple of cakes of Squeer's seap, said to be the finest thing in the market, sir.

Can't be overlookedthe simple truth about Pearline. It washes clothes, paint, dishes-everything that can be washed. It cleans your house from cellar to attic. It saves you half the work, and patent canvas pouches.
